Chef's Story

Welcome to Chef's Restaurant, owned and operated by Chef Michael Christensen, Jr. And his son, Michael Christensen, III. Please take a moment to learn a little about Chef's story.

Chef Michael is Native American from the Ojibwa Nation in Northern Wisconsin. He was raised in Chicago. His father, Michael Christensen, Sr. Had owned and operated a successful diner in Las de Flambeau, Wisconsin for over twenty years, thus giving Chef Michael Christensen his introduction to the culinary world.

At the tender age of eleven, young Michael was cooking the meals for his dad and brothers in their family kitchen and by fifteen he was working in restaurants. As he watched the cooks, he instinctively knew he had the ability to do what they did and more.

He grew to love everything about food preparation and in his mid twenties studied at Minneapolis Technical College and The Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, New York. In 2000 Michael earned the “Certified Executive Chef” title from the American Culinary Federation.

Chef offers “quality food at a fair price.” Chef Michael invites you to ask the server if you would like something added to make your meal even more special.

Bring your family, your friends, and above all, bring your appetite and enjoy your dining experience at Chef's. We are open Tuesday through Sunday for breakfast and lunch.

“An elegant food find” veiled West Side breakfast and lunch spot Chef's offers 'snazzy' New Orleans inspired menu.”
